Stored For 7 Years: 1974 Ford Courier - Barn Finds This 1974 Ford Courier is said to be completely original and unrestored with only 55k miles. The seller adds that the truck runs like new, drips nothing, and can idle all day under the Texas sun. While not perfect, the truck nevertheless appears to be in remarkable condition for any 39-year-old unrestored vehicle, let alone a basic work truck.

The truck was available with front disc brakes and a Ford-built 2.3-liter engine option, which was the same engine used in the Ford Pinto and Mustang II. The key feature distinguishing the Courier from Mazda's B series was the single headlights, although with park and indicator lights were placed inset starting in 1978. 1977 models retained the turn signal lights in the bumper.
